

Signs of Autumn

As we move from Summer into Autumn there are many signs to look out for that plants and animals are preparing for Winter. How many of these have you seen? Why not try to spot these as the exciting season of Autumn begins in your local park or nature reserve.

Leaves turning orange, red or yellow

Birds eating berries from trees

Fungi emerging in woodlands

Murmurations of Starlings

Days begin to get shorter

Nuts being gathered by squirrels